Raritan Bay Federal Credit Union Awards Three Outstanding High School Seniors in the Community with College Scholarships

Sayreville, NJ – 2010 Raritan Bay Federal Credit Union is proud to announce the winners of a $500 scholarship, awarded to three outstanding local high school students. These scholarships, on behalf of the Raritan Bay Federal Credit Union, were awarded to Erik Sherman of Sayreville War Memorial High School, Vernice Araham of Bishop George Ahr High School, and Luke O'Connor of South Amboy High School.

The scholarship was offered to all high school seniors, who are Raritan Bay Federal Credit Union members. Students competed against other students from schools throughout Middlesex County. Winners were selected based on scholastic achievement, extra curricular and community activities, teacher references and leadership qualities.

Erik Sherman plans on attending NYU with a major in Biology/Pre-Med. Vernice Araham will be attending Cornell University with a major in Urban and Regional Planning. Luke O'Connor will be majoring in Civil Engineering at the University of Maryland.

Raritan Bay FCU is a non-profit, community chartered financial institution that serves Middlesex County. Raritan Bay FCU was chartered in 1941, and is owned and operated by its members.
